BOOKS

Mormon Claims Answered (120 pages) by Marvin W. Cowan. A well documented response to Mormonism's claims against historic, Biblical Christianity. It also shows that Mormonism's claims have serious flaws concerning its origin, view of God, the Bible, Book of Mormon, other LDS scripture, revelation, salvation, priesthood, apostles, prophets, the true church, etc. $3.00

What Every Mormon Should Ask (32 pages) by Marvin W. Cowan. Good questions for Mormons with Christian answers. Pub. by Harvest House. (Temporarily out of print) $2.00

Mormonism - Shadow or Reality? (576 pages) by Jerald and Sandra Tanner. The most comprehensive examination of Mormonism in one volume. Well documented with photocopies. A "must read" for serious students of Mormonism. The ex-Mormon authors are leading authorities on Mormonism. $18.00

Major Problems of Mormonism (256 pages) by Jerald and Sandra Tanner. Major problems in the claims of Mormonism examined. $8.00

The Bible and Mormon Doctrine (32 pages) by Sandra Tanner. A great study of basic Mormon doctrine in the light of the Bible $2.00

Evolution of the Mormon Temple Ceremony (184 pages) by Jerald and Sandra Tanner. Contains the text of the Mormon Temple ceremony, including the 1990 revision. Also shows the connection to Masonry. $6.00

The Bible - God's Only Infallible Word to Man (32 pages) by Floyd C. McElveen. An excellent booklet on the validity of the Bible. .25

Mormonism, Mama and Me - by Thelma "Granny" Geer. "Granny" is a great-granddaughter of John D. Lee, a Mormon who led an attack that killed 120 emigrants on a wagon train. "Granny," a Mormon for 30 years, shows many errors in Mormonism and shares her faith in Christ $5.00

Gentile Girl-Living with the Latter-day Saints - by Carol Avery Forseth. Carol was not a Mormon but attended BYU, lived in their dormitory and shares her story of interacting with Mormons there. 5.00
